Hope Businessmen Visit New Anthony Mill

SEVERAL HOPE BUSINESSMEN PAID A VISIT TO the new Graydon Anthony lumber mill in the Proving Ground area last week. The mill, almost ready for production, replaced one recently destroyed by fire.

MR. ANTHONY, A VETERAN MILL OPERATOR, stated that they would be ready to get into production within the next few days and would cut both pine and hardwood lumber. Some of the equipment was salvaged from the fire but it was necessary to install several new pieces in order to get under way again, according to Mr. Anthony.

ONE NEW PIECE OF EQUIPMENT IS THE Riderless Carriage, manufactured by Cox Brothers Machine and Foundry Company here in Hope. Mr. Anthony will be assisted in the operation of the mill by his son, Buddy.

THE VISITING BUSINESSMEN EXPRESSED THEIR appreciation to Mr. Anthony for his contribution to the Hope economy by providing a good payroll in the years past and extended best wishes for continued success.

Mrs. McKinney Dies Here Monday

Mrs. Verna D. McKinney, aged 71, lifelong resident of Hempstead, died Monday in a local hospital. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Avery McKinney and a sister, Mrs. Ollie Moorehead of Little Rock.

Services were held today at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by the Rev. Robert Moore. Burial was in Memory Gardens.

Call Issued for a New GOP Convention

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke's call for a Republican convention next year to draft a new platform is getting only a lukewarm reception from party leaders.

A few here and there find it a clarion call for action, but most told The Associated Press in a survey they don't see any need for the party to convene before 1968, as scheduled.

The over-riding view is: "Let's wait for the dust to settle before making any major decision." Or, as Victor Smith, chairman of the GOP Central Committee in Illinois, put it: "Right now we need sober and reflective thought."

Brooke's idea draws attention partly because it is unique and partly because of his smashing victory last Tuesday while President Johnson was sweeping the state. A Negro who refused to endorse Barry Goldwater, Brooke was re-elected by almost 800,000 votes despite a 1-million-plus victory for Johnson.

In outlining his suggestion, Brooke said the convention should be held in the summer of 1965 because by 1966 the delegates "should be ready for the congressional election and then get ready for 1968."

"If they don't," he added, "then we will become rather perilously close to losing the vital two-party system of government."

The idea fell on receptive ears — to a degree — in Lansing, Mich., where Gov. George Romney said it "merits consideration." However, Romney added, an off-year convention is not provided for in present party machinery.

In Oregon, Gov. Mark O. Hatfield called Brooke's suggestion premature. Before Republicans could get together to write a new platform "we would have to have a definite reshuffling of the present leadership to get a broader consensus," he said.

British Labor Survives Test, Faces Another

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP) — With its first House of Commons vote safely behind it, Britain's Labor government faced another tonight and was confident of success.

By a margin of seven votes, 307, to 300, Prime Minister Harold Wilson's Laborites Monday night defeated a Conservative attack on their pledge to nationalize steel production. The vote tonight was on a Conservative motion of no confidence in Wilson's government.

The government's margin of victory was likely to be larger tonight. The nine Liberal members, who joined the Conservatives in voting against steel nationalization, were expected to abstain.

For two hours Monday night Scottish Laborites were grounded by fog in Glasgow. Since the government normally has only a five-vote majority in Commons and two Labor members were ill, Wilson appeared to face defeat after only 23 days in office. An adverse vote would have forced him to resign.

The Laborites made it from Glasgow in time for the vote, and the fog kept two Conservatives away from London. But Wilson ordered all Laborites weekending outside the capital in the future to get back by train if a critical vote was scheduled.

Laborite commentators saw considerable psychological significance in the government's victory. They felt it reinforced Wilson's belief that his small majority is enough to allow him to call the parliamentary time.

Even if defeated on a "snap" Commons vote they said, Wilson could demand a formal vote of confidence next day and get it. Thus, barring an upheaval inside his own party, he would be unlikely to lose office involuntarily and could pick his own time for calling new elections to seek a bigger mandate.

The government closed the debate Monday night with considerable room to maneuver on the steel issue, the most controversial part of its program.

The Labor program calls for "necessary public ownership" of the industry. Power Minister Fred Lee, in elaborating the government's case, demanded state ownership of "the main part of the industry."

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Frankie Shipp, 52, of the Genoa Community was shot to death Monday on a country road 12 miles east of here, in the Genoa area.

Miller County authorities held another resident of the area. Shipp was shot once in the chest with a rifle.

The proposal won 6,304-5,618, even though a similar proposal was defeated by 148 votes in 1962. "We'll" forces appealed the 1962 election, and sale of alcoholic beverages has remained legal while the appeal is in courts.

Johnson Looks for Savings to Use Elsewhere

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is reviewing U.S. military commitments, looking for possible savings to help finance other administration programs.

To help in the hunt, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk meet with Johnson today at his ranch home for a top-level conference.

The President wants them to pinpoint ways to economize — particularly in the defense budget — so funds can be freed for other legislative proposals Johnson will send to Congress in January.

These proposals — including broadscale efforts to aid education and promote prosperity — are still in the drafting stage.

McNamara flew to the LBJ Ranch Monday for an intensive review of the Pentagon budget. He is expected to hold a news conference this afternoon at Bergstrom Air Force Base, Austin.

Johnson is making a fine-print study of defense spending because he wants to keep his next budget under $100 billion.

The defense budget is the prime target for penny-pinching because it accounts for more than half of all government spending — $49.9 billion this year out of an estimated $97.2 billion.

Aides said Johnson and McNamara discussed ways to "keep the highest degree of national security within the lowest possible cost."

They pictured Johnson as feeling that without strict supervision the new budget could reach $103 billion to $105 billion. They said this would be the "normal projection" for year-to-year budget increases that reflect an expanding population and existing commitments.

It is regarded as most unlikely that Johnson will send Congress a budget that large. He is expected to try to keep it under $100 billion, although White House sources say he has yet to decide on a target figure.

Last year, Johnson talked of submitting a budget of $103 billion or more. In the end he came up with the recently revised total of $97.2 billion, which was lower than the budget prepared a year earlier by the late President John F. Kennedy. Besides seeing McNamara and Rusk on the budget, the President is expected to meet at the ranch Wednesday with other Cabinet members.

Newspaper Strike May Be Over

DETROIT (AP) — Tentative agreement on a new contract between Detroit's strikebound daily newspapers and one of two striking craft unions was announced today by federal and state mediators.

Details of the settlement with Local 10 of the Plate and Paper Handlers Union were not disclosed, pending ratification by the union membership.

Mediators said the settlement will be recommended unanimously by the union's bargaining committee.

There still was no indication of settlement between publishers of the morning Detroit Free Press and afternoon Detroit News with Local 13 of the Printing Pressmen's Union, which walked out with Plate and Paper Handlers 120 days ago and closed down the two newspapers.

Publishers and pressmen are to resume negotiations Thursday.

Predicts Negro in LBJ Cabinet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Democratic Rep. Adam Clayton Powell of New York, a Negro, predicted Monday that President Johnson would soon appoint a Negro to his Cabinet.

Powell, at a news conference, declined further comment, except to say he was not referring to himself.

Powell, chairman of the House Education and Welfare Committee, is investigating the California farm labor situation.

Officers Now Carry Small Radios

WASHINGTON (AP) — It is a quiet weekend afternoon. The four-star general is out on the golf course. Suddenly, a military emergency erupts.

The general, a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, is nowhere near the "hot lines" that connect the Pentagon command post with his home and office. His car, with its telephone link, is back at the club house.

How to reach him? Send a messenger?

No. Call him directly — on his personal small package two-way radio.

The Defense Department said today that all of the military chiefs have such radios, which can tie them into the global U.S. military communications net.

"They do not literally carry them on their person at all times, only when away from normal communications," the Pentagon said.

All of the chiefs have been using these personal radios since early 1964 and some high officials have had them for longer than that, the department said.

The first public indication that such emergency communications devices existed came when Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., of the Marine Corps commandant, showed one to a luncheon of the National Security Industrial Association in September.

Questions were asked of the Defense Department as a result, and the Pentagon has come through with some details.

It is essentially a walkie-talkie used as a "phone extension" when they (the chiefs) are away from their offices, home, autos, planes, etc., the Pentagon said.

"The radio ties in with communications facilities which reach worldwide."

The radios operate on 1 or 1½ watts power and have a range of up to 17 miles.

Everyone Gets Helping Hand Today From the Government Except Middle-Aged Folks

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

Everybody gets a helping hand today from the government except middle-aged people.

Uncle Sam has laws to safeguard children. He has Social Security and welfare programs for the aged and needy. He protects the widow, the manufacturer, the cattle rancher and the farmer. He extends aid to college student, the veteran — even the Indian.

But America still has one orphan that no government — local, state or federal — is rushing to protect. That is the middle-aged persons. He is the Forgotten Man to Congress, his state legislature, and to City Hall.

When you get right down to it, the middle-aged man is pretty well forgotten by everyone else, too.

No national day, week, or month has been declared in his honor. No statues to him have been erected in the parks, and no boulevards — or one-way streets — have been named for him. Nobody even bothers to write love songs for him any more.

The only ones who bother to pay any attention to middle-aged people are doctors, dentists, tax collectors, used car salesmen, and other pocket pluckers.

Why have the middle-aged fallen to such low estate? There are more voices raised in alarm over the plight of the whooping crane than over the

The signs showed up Monday. Each read: "Name of Elected Official."

30 Injured in School Bus Accident

BREMERTON, Wash. (AP) — "Tell daddy to get out here quick," said the excited young voice of Donna Muller, 17, into the telephone.

"There are kids cut and bleeding all over the place,"

Dr. C. D. Muller thus was one of the first to reach the hillside near the city's edge where a school bus rolled over Monday afternoon, injuring about 30 of the 67 high school students it was returning to their homes.

None was hurt critically and school Supt. Bud Winderl said he believed not more than 15 were hospitalized. Most seriously hurt were three with broken arms, of shoulders, suffered when they were tossed about as the bus rolled 71 feet down an embankment.

In the group was Jan Westera, about 17, an exchange student from the Netherlands, who suffered a cut over one eye.

The state patrol said driver James H. Cobb told officers he pulled to the shoulder of the road as a city bus approached. The wheels of the school bus slipped into a drainage ditch, and Cobb said he was unable to maneuver the vehicle back on the road.

Cobb said the bus rolled once, then half over again. Dr. Muller said his daughters, Donna and Pam, 15, thought it was three times.

"They said they were all over the place," he reported, "first on the side and then on the roof and then on the floor."

"They were pretty calm," said Winderl. "It's amazing how kids that age can measure up. They were helping each other out of the overturned bus and showed no signs of panic."

The bus stopped rolling in a back yard at the bottom of the bank.

Donna, who was unhurt, ran to the nearest house and called her father's clinic. Her sister Pam suffered only a bruised knee.

Texarkana Wreck Claims No. 4

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Carol Matthews, 13, Monday became the fourth member of the William Matthews family of Hooks, Tex., killed in a Sunday highway collision near here.

$100 Billion Budget Aim of Johnson

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson meets today with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara as he pushes his campaign to keep next year's federal budget under $100 billion.

McNamara was invited to be Johnson's guest at the 400-acre LBJ Ranch to discuss Pentagon budgeting that will be crucial to the over-all federal spending plan destined for delivery to Congress in January.

Flying west from Washington with McNamara was Deputy Secretary of Defense Cyrus Vance.

McNamara, coming to the Texas hill country without any formal agenda for his talks with Johnson, was to arrive late today. He will be an overnight guest at the ranch where the President has been relaxing since the Nov. 3 election.

McNamara will be joined here Tuesday by Secretary of State Dean Rusk. The President and the two key Cabinet members will jointly canvass some of the global military and diplomatic problems.

Johnson, for the second year in a row, is hopeful of keeping the federal budget from exceeding $100 billion.

Pentagon outlays, accounting for about half of all federal spending, will have a decisive impact on whether or not he achieves his goal for the fiscal year that begins next July 1.

The President, who will entertain President-elect Gustavo Diaz Ordaz of Mexico Thursday and Friday on his home acres, intends to spend the entire week at his ranch.

The President took the wheel Sunday when he and Mrs. Johnson drove 6 miles west to Fredericksburg to participate in cornerstone-laying ceremonies at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church. Mrs. Johnson is a member of the church. He belongs to the Christian Church but often, when home, accompanies her to services at St. Barnabas.

Johnson said nothing at the ceremonies. Mrs. Johnson made the only speech, after presenting to the Fredericksburg Church of St. Barnabas on Cyprus. Barnabas died a martyr's death nearly 2,000 years ago on that Mediterranean island.

Mrs. Johnson had been given the stone on a trip in 1962 when she and her husband, then the vice president, visited Cyprus. It was a gift of Greek Orthodox Archbishop Makarios, now president of Cyprus.

Call Issued for

The leadership, of course, is still in the hands of Goldwater men. Hatfield generally is considered in the party's liberal or moderate wing.

Another moderate, Massachusetts Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, counseled caution. "I think we've got to let the very strong feelings that have arisen die down a bit," he said.

Taking a similar tack was Robert Taft Jr., whose bid to unseat Sen. Stephen M. Young in Ohio failed by a whisker. "It's a little early to come up with any suggestions about another convention," Taft said. "I'm still looking over the situation."

Colorado Gov. John A. Love, who like Brooke backed Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania for the presidential nomination, said: "I couldn't agree more that we need to rethink and restate alternatives to the professed Democrat philosophy. However, I am not certain that a national convention is the appropriate vehicle."

"Drafting a new platform would serve what purpose?" inquired Fred Young, New York state chairman.

Acceptance — of a sort — came from Mayor Theodore R. MaecKeldin of Baltimore, a Republican liberal who backed Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York for the nomination.

"I think adopting a new platform as such might stir up old controversies," he said, "but we should get together, compose our differences and come up with a new statement of principles."

"I'd prefer to call it just that, a statement of principles, rather than a new platform."

In Arkansas, Winthrop Rockefeller, a committeeman who ran for governor and lost, called Brooke's suggestion "very interesting."

Also in the South, both North Carolina Chairman Herman Saxon and Virginia Chairman Robert J. Corber suggested the voters repudiated the candidate — Sen. Goldwater — and not the platform.

"I don't think the platform was involved in the vote," said Saxon. "The platform adopted in San Francisco was a progressive platform."

In the view of North Dakota Chairman B. J. Clayburgh, the platform wasn't the problem last Tuesday. "I feel our plat-

A jury returned a verdict of $35,000 each for the mothers Martha Imogene Gray and Verona Beavers against William T. Norman and Better Built Homes, Inc.

Trial testimony said the girls were riding a bicycle and were struck by a car driven by Norman on Arkansas 70.

In another Garland County case, the court affirmed a $13,500 judgment against Frances Foncint, owner of a car in which four teen-agers were killed.

Dorothy Easley Rankin, mother of one of the teen-agers, form was far stronger on the approach to civil rights than the Democratic platform," he said, "so if there is need to change any platform we would probably have to change both the Democratic and Republican platforms."

One of the few unqualified endorsements of Brooke's idea came from Caspar W. Weinberger, a former California state chairman.

He said: "I think Brooke's idea is excellent. The sooner we can assure the country that the former leadership has been changed — or if it refuses to be changed, that our party's policies are different, the better it will be for Republicans."

Looking for a Lion, Here Is Good One

By PETER SALZBERG

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (AP) —If you are looking for a full-grown, 300-pound lion for your backyard, Howard Sautter has one and he is looking for a new home for Leo.

"He's tame, and so crippled that he can't jump two feet, and I'll pay $1,000 to anyone who can prove he roars," Sautter says. But local authorities say Leo must go—and go he will.

"It's a lot better to be sure that he gets a good home now than to keep him longer and have to give him away quickly later," said Sautter, 52, a gas station operator who has kept Leo in a cage in his backyard or in the garage for 21 months. Sometimes, Sautter would take Leo out on jobs with him, seating him on the tow truck seat beside him.

The Abington Township commissioners, after receiving a petition from Sautter's neighbors, ruled that Leo was a public nuisance and would have to go.

Sautter at first said he would fight it. "He doesn't bother anybody," he said. "I'm going to get a lawyer and fight this all the way."

Sautter told a newsman Monday night that he had changed his mind and had told the commissioners in this Philadelphia suburb that he'll get rid of Leo as soon as he can find a proper home.

"I thought it would be better all around that way," he said. "though we are very fond of him and it's going to be tough to get rid of him."

He bought Leo as a 3-month-old cub for $250.

"DEAR ABBY"

MOUNTAINOUS MOLE HILL!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: We have been married for 24 years and we have no problems except that my wife likes to read the newspaper in bed before going to sleep. I like to read in bed, too, but my wife is still reading the newspaper long after I have dozed off. She has a certain way of turning the pages with a quick SWICH, which always invariably wakes me up. (Now that I have put it in writing it looks like such a silly little thing but, Abby, you have no idea how irritating this can be!)

She promised a few times that she would not read the newspaper in bed anymore, but she always starts up again. I just moved into another bedroom. No fights. Just a decision. Was I wrong?

ETHEL'S PARTNER

Dear Partner: No. It's too bad that more people don't realize that the biggest chasm in the world started with the tinest gap.

Dear Abby: Last August a niece of mine was married. Two of my daughters were bridesmaids and my little boy was the ring-bearer. There were three showers for the bride, which my daughters and I attended. (This meant NINE separate gifts.) In addition to that, we gave her a very expensive wedding present. The bridesmaids' dresses were store-bought and came to $49.50 each. I am not counting the shoes, gloves and incidentals. The boy's ring-bearer suit was made by a dressmaker, and that wasn't cheap, either. You can imagine how much all this added up to, but I'm not complaining. I loved every minute of it.

My sister (the bride's mother) paid a photographer to come and take pictures of the wedding. She had a book made up and it was beautiful. I asked for a picture or two. My sister said I could BUY them from the pho-

Jonesboro Has Meningitis Death

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Jonesboro has recorded its second death from meningitis since Sept. 30.

Thomas Scott Ward, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Ward, died Sunday at a hospital of what a physician said was a type of meningitis not highly contagious.

Thomas W. Henderson Jr., 2, died Sept. 30 of a similar type of the disease. The physician said there was no connection between the two cases.

tographer. I told her the one that was in the newspaper would do me all right. Now she's peeved at me and refuses to talk to me. Will you please tell me if relatives and members of the bridal party are supposed to BUY pictures?

ONLY A SISTER.
Dear Abby: Close relatives and members of the bridal party are usually GIVEN a picture of themselves and one of the bride couple. Your sister is either uninformed or tapped out. (And possibly both!)

Dear Abby: I am 18 and am engaged to be married soon. I wear braces on my teeth and have for two years. My dentist tells me that I must wear these braces for another year. He has offered to remove them for my wedding if I will let him put them back on afterwards. My fiancé feels that I should get married with the braces on and complete the treatment. I just can't see myself getting married with braces on my teeth. And then wearing them after I am married. What would you do?

BRACE PROBLEM
Dear Problem: I would let my dentist remove my braces for the wedding, replace them afterwards and complete the treatment.

UN Observer Is Named by Vatican

By HUBERT J. ERB

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Vatican's first permanent observer to the United Nations is a veteran diplomat who also describes himself as "an expert on the Holy See in World War II."

The Rt. Rev. Alberto Giovannetti, a cheerful Roman, arrived recently as the Roman Catholic Church's resident observer, following a personal audience with Pope Paul VI.

In an interview, the 51-year-old representative of the Vatican state made these points: —It is not likely that the Vatican will take the final step toward becoming a member of the United Nations.

—The role of his mission is nonpolitical. He will spend most of his time working with the U.N. social and humanitarian interests in fields where the Church traditionally has been active.

—The Vatican named a permanent observer at this time "because since the time of the late Pope John XXIII the Church has become more internationally minded."

The Vatican mission is the sixth to represent a nonmember state at the United Nations on a permanent basis. The others are West Germany, South Viet Nam, South Korea, Monaco and Switzerland.

Describing the Vatican's position, Msgr. Giovannetti said "we are like Switzerland, helping to further the activities of the United Nations but not as a member state because we do not want to become politically involved."

"In any event," he added, "as Pope Pius XII said, 'Catholics are the best suited to understand the universality of the United Nations'."

Msgr. Giovannetti began his mission to the United Nations where he was the Vatican's representative to the U.N. trade and development conference.

Msgr. Giovannetti said he saw his primary duties as "reporting to the Vatican and following closely those activities of the United Nations concerned with discrimination, protection of minorities and especially the problems of the developing countries."

Msgr. Giovannetti, who speaks French, German and English as well as Italian, has written a number of books including: "The Vatican in the War," "Rome Open City," and "The Red Book of the Persecuted Church," the last concerned with postwar oppression of Catholics.

Broyles Warns Porkers SMU Tough Outfit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Just because their opponent coming up not beat 23-0 is no reason to think they're not a good team, the Arkansas Razorbacks are being told as they prepare for the game that could put them in the Cotton Bowl.

A Southern Methodist team that was held to a minus 10 yards on the ground and only 48 in the air by Texas A & M was pictured as "having adequate offense, great defense and a tremendous blocking game" by sport Lon Ferrell.

Moreover, Coach Frank Broyles warned Arkansas to know the SMU had been indeed troublesome in the past two years, almost beating the Razorbacks the first time and actually beating them the second.

Which accounted for his somber outlook for the Southern Methodist-Arkansas game at Fayetteville Saturday when the Razorbacks can leap into the Cotton Bowl with a victory.

Arkansas had Jack Brasuell on the ailing list but the hard-running tailback was due to be ready for the game. Southern Methodist had no injuries.

Texas Christian brewed pass magic for Texas and Coach Abe Martin found quarterbacks Kent Nix and Randy Howard doing some sharp passing.

Texas and TCU play at Fort Worth Saturday and Texas has to win to stay in the Southwest Conference race.

Texas A&M was still glowing over breaking its losing streak by beating Southern Methodist but not enough that the squad failed to put in some hard work Monday preparing for the invasion of Houston to meet the Rice Owls. Rice worked on offense since the Owls have scored only one touchdown in the last three games.

Fullback Paul Piper was a doubtful starter for Rice but everybody was ready at Texas A&M.

Texas Tech got a report that Washington State, whom the Red Raiders meet in Lubbock Saturday, is double tough but Tech is ready for it with all hands except defensive end Tommy Doyle in shape. Doyle went out with a torn up knee and won't be back this season.

Baylor got ready for a visit to Lexington, Ky., where the Bears play Kentucky Saturday

Giardello to Defend Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Middleweight boxing champion Joey Giardello will defend his title against Ruben (Hurricane) Carter Dec. 14 in Convention Hall — with or without television — says Giardello's attorney, Michael Del Collo.

The postponed bout was to have taken place in Las Vegas on Oct. 23, but Giardello walked out when promoters couldn't come up with a $55,000 guarantee for him. Carter was to have received $12,500.

The official announcement and signing of new contracts will take place Thursday in Philadelphia, Del Collo said.

Pistons Are to Release Coach Wolf

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Don Wattrick, new executive manager of the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball Association, is expected to announce today the release of Coach Charley Wolf and the signing of a veteran player on the Detroit team as the new mentor.

Wattrick, a 54-year-old Detroit radio and sports personality named to the executive post Monday, said he hoped to make an announcement through his Detroit office.

In Fort Wayne, Ind., Pistons' owner Fred Zollner said Wattrick is acting on his own initiative in team matters. Zollner added that he expects to hear a report from Wattrick when he returns from the East later this week.

Wattrick declined direct comment on the coaching change, except to say that he "wants to know why we're not winning. So I look at first things first. I look at the guy that has been in control of the team."

"Any changes will be made by me and I intend to change the coach as soon as possible," he added.

Citing the Pistons' 2-9 losing record, Wattrick said one of his first acts in his new job would be to "try to make this team a winner." The Pistons haven't had a winning season since and will have to go without Henry Pickett, tough running halfback, who got three broken ribs against Texas. Pass-receiving specialist Lawrence Elkins also is ailing but probably will play.

State Ranks No. 10 in Small Colleges

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wittenberg, which has finished its season undefeated but has rejected participation in a bowl game, retained its No. 1 ranking today in The Associated Press small college football poll.

The Tigers from Springfield, Ohio, have led the Top Ten since the start of the season. This week they received nine of 16 first-place votes and 139 points over-all.

The other nine teams also remained in the select group but were shuffled around considerably.

Wittenberg trounced Wabash 42-7 last Saturday, completing its season at 8-0 and extending its unbeaten streak to 29 games, longest in the country. The Tigers were tied once last season.

Almost a certainty to receive an invitation to one of four NCAA-sponsored small college bowls, the Tigers unanimously voted against such a game at special meeting Monday.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points:

1. Wittenberg (9)	132
2. Louisiana Tech (2)	96
3. Florida A&M (1)	91
4. Prairie View	75
5. Los Angeles St. (1)	66
6. San Diego St.	55
7. Texas A&I	52
8. Massachusetts	47
9. Minn. Concordia	40
10. Arkansas State	24

Porkers Not Worried Over That Rating

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas football coach Frank Broyles said Monday he didn't think the Razorbacks were worried about ratings, but instead were interested only in winning their next game.

The Hogs, ranked third in the nation this week, meet Southern Methodist Saturday at Fayetteville.

"I know they want to win, and they know what it takes," Broyles said. "We've got a lot of improvements to make, both as players and coaches."

The Razorbacks got a scouting report on the Mustangs from assistant coach Lon Ferrell, then went through a brief workout in sweat clothes.

Broyles said he pointed out to the team that Arkansas has not done well against SMU in the last two years. SMU beat Arkansas last year, and the Hogs had to come from behind to win two years ago.

Ferrell said SMU had an adequate offense, a great defense and a tremendous kicking game and said the Mustangs' 23-0 loss to Texas A&M was not an indication of the kind of team SMU has.

Arkansas tailback Jack Brasuell, who bruised a thigh in the 21-0 Arkansas triumph of Rice, didn't work out Monday, but Broyles said he thought Brasuell would be able to play against SMU.

Tulane Loses Big Money on Athletics

By KELSO STURGEON

Associated Press Sports Writer ATLANTA (AP) — Tulane, which puts its Southeastern Conference status in doubt by scheduling only three SEC games in 1966, has lost more than $1.2 million on its athletic program during the past two years.

The decision to cut back on the SEC schedule and possibly lay the ground work for getting out of the conference came several months ago when school officials decided they could not afford to subsidize the program to the tune of $600,000 a year.

The $1.2-million figure—which officials at the university in New Orleans would neither confirm nor deny—came from two persons close to the school and also from two members of the athletic staffs of two other SEC institutions.

Dr. Rix N. Yard, athletic director of Tulane, said in a telephone interview that it was obvious to the educated eye that the losses at Tulane the past two seasons have been heavy. But he declined to put any figure on them.

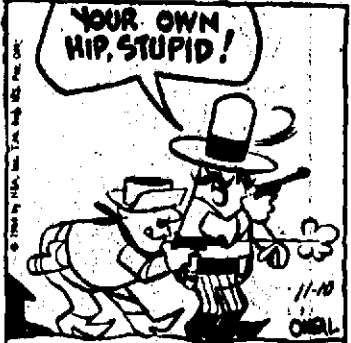

"A look at the Tulane catalog is enough to let you see how hard it is for us to compete in the SEC financially," Yard said. "The average scholarship here costs us $2,500 a year, while it's about half that at state-supported schools."

"I would like to set the record straight on this: we are not, nor have we been, moving from Fort Wayne in 1957."

Porkers Move Up in National Poll to Third

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Notre Dame is the No. 1 team in the country for the second straight week, but the unbeaten Irish must make a strong showing against Michigan State this Saturday to receive another vote of confidence.

The Associated Press panel of sports writers and sportscasters placed Notre Dame at the head of the major college Top Ten again this week, but only by 13 points over Alabama, the Southeastern Conference champion.

A shaky 17-15 victory over Pitt last Saturday, coupled with Alabama's 17-9 triumph over Louisiana State, another member of the Top Ten, left the Irish with a slim lead, built on 26 of 41 first-place votes.

Alabama replaced Ohio State as runner-up, receiving 11 first-place votes. The Buckeyes tumbled to seventh following their 27-0 loss to Penn State.

Unbeaten Arkansas and Nebraska and once-beaten Texas each advanced one spot to third, fourth and fifth, respectively. Michigan bolted from nowhere to sixth while Oregon State moved into the Top Ten in eighth place.

LSU, one of five of the elite to lose last Saturday, dropped to ninth, and Georgia Tech slipped to 10th. Florida and Purdue fell out altogether.

In seeking its eighth victory, Notre Dame plays a team it hasn't defeated since 1954. In the ensuing period, Michigan State has knocked off the Irish seven times. The Spartans also are fresh from a 21-7 victory that knocked Purdue out of the Top Ten and out of the lead in the Big Ten.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points:

1. Notre Dame (26)	380
2. Alabama (11)	367
3. Arkansas (3)	334
4. Nebraska	283
5. Texas	220
6. Michigan	184
7. Ohio State	138
8. Oregon State (1)	114

do we have any intention of, de-emphasizing athletics at Tulane," Yard said.

"We just want to get things back in order around here and get our feet on the ground, and I believe the conference will want to cooperate with us."

The SEC will hold its annual meeting in Atlanta in January and will determine at that time what action to take on the Tulane matter. The school's decision not to play the required six conference football games is a violation of the SEC bylaws.

SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore said in Birmingham that he had not had time to study Tulane's situation and did not know how other conference members felt.

Tulane is 1-6 in the won-loss column this year and has won only two other games since 1961. Attendance at home games has averaged about 18,000 this season.

Other SEC members are Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt.

Whitey Ford Has an Operation

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Whitey Ford was recuperating today from an operation on his left arm, and the New York Yankees' celebrated southpaw should be able to pitch again by spring training.

The surgery, performed Monday by Dr. Denton Cooley, was to correct a circulatory ailment that had sidelined Ford during the middle stages of the American League pennant race, and again during the World Series.

A spokesman at St. Luke's Hospital said Ford would be discharged in about a week.

Ken Hatfield as Valuable as Anyone

DALLAS (AP)—Donny Anderson, Texas Tech's jack-of-all-trades, has taken over the rushing lead and Terry Southall of Baylor continues as the total offense top man in Southwest Conference football.

But there's a fellow on defense who's doing as much for his team as anybody and doing it so quietly no one realizes it until reading the conference statistics.

He's Ken Hatfield of Arkansas, who appears on the way to a record three-year total in punt returns. Hatfield took nine Rice punts back 69 yards last week to bring his career total to 1020 yards on 64 returns. The conference record is 1123, set by Lindy Berry of Texas Christian in the forties.

Hatfield has two more games to get the 104 yards necessary to establish a new record.

Anderson had a big night in the 48-0 defeat of West Texas State, rushing for 134 yards to shoot into the lead with 758 yards on 164 carries.

Jim Fauver of Texas Christian is second with 637 yards on 119 runs.

Southall leads the passers with 91 completions in 170 attempts for 1266 yards. His big yardage in passing made him total offense leader although he lost 16 yards rushing. His total is 1250 yards on 214 plays.

Lawrence Elkins of Baylor continues to pace the pass-receivers with 37 catches for 717 yards.

Hatfield leads the punt returners with 403 yards on 25 runs and the kickoff returners with 253 yards on 12 attempts.

Danny Thomas of Texas Christian is the No. 1 punter with an average of 42.8 yards on 38 kicks.

Last Saturday night in LL football play in the first game the Whites practically clinched the title, barely nipping the Blues, 7-6.

The initial score came midway in the first quarter when Danny Putman went around end all the way from 30 yards out.

Ronnie Massanelli ran the extra point. The second score came for the Blues when Jimmy Purdie scored from 3 yards out. The run for the PAT failed.

In the second game of the night, the Golds beat the Reds, 26-8. The first score came for the Golds when Richard Calhoun rammed over. Tommy Miller ran the PAT.

The Reds didn't have enough players present so they borrowed a couple from the Blues and one of them scored when Tommy Frazier threw a long pass to Stan James for the first Red score. The next score came when Jack Turner threw a long pass to Richard Calhoun for the TD. The PAT failed. The next score came on a 30-yard run by Tommy Miller.

Jack Turner ran the PAT and it was 20-6. The final tally came when Jack Turner scored his first TD of the year for the Golds. The run for the PAT failed and the final score was 26-6.

Dean Chance Best Hurler of Season

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — "I have to give pitching coach Marv Grissom a lot of the credit," says Dean Chance, the Los Angeles Angels' right-hander who was named the Cy Young Award winner as the best major league pitcher of 1964.

A special committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America gave Chance 17 of the 20 votes cast, making him the third successive Los Angeles hurler to be selected.

He succeeds Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers, who received one vote although he was injured part of the season. The Dodgers' Don Drysdale won in 1962.

Larry Jackson of the Chicago Cubs, whose 24-11 record made him the majors' winningest pitcher, was named on the other two ballots, the committee announced Monday.

"I'm really happy about the honor," the 23-year-old off-season farmer said. "I thought I had a pretty good shot at it after the season when the statistics came out."

"I've been with Grissom since 1961," said Chance, who posted a 20-9 record and a 1.65 ERA. "He gave me confidence and taught me different little things like following through and smoothing out my motion."

"Of course, this year, I had three years of experience, and I used it all to the best of my ability. I learned how to pitch."

Chance used his blazing fast ball and slider to rack up the most shutouts in the majors — 11. A record-tying five of them were 1-0 decisions. The last pitcher to achieve this mark was Carl Hubbell in 1933.

Chance also had the most complete games in the American League with 15. His 208 strikeouts put him a close third in the AL behind Al Downing of the Yankees and Camilo Pascual of Minnesota.

Asked if winning the award might have a beneficial effect on his salary next year, Chance replied:

"I think this honor and the other awards I'm getting will give me a bigger status and make my presence worth more next season."

Chance started 35 games and finished seven of his 11 relief appearances. He worked 278 1-3 innings, walked only 86 and permitted only seven homers. Six of his nine defeats were by a single run.

Shaken Royals Are Cheerful

CINCINNATI (AP) — The shaken Cincinnati Royals had one cause for good cheer today — the Big O may be back in action Friday.

Oscar Robertson, the Royals' one-man team, has been out of action since he suffered an eye injury Nov. 1 in a game against Detroit. Since then, the Royals have dropped three straight.

The 10 stitches in Robinson's right eyeball came out Monday morning and doctors at Christ Hospital said he would be able to play this weekend.

He Was Just a Week Off

NEW YORK (AP) — A guy walked into the National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden Monday night, looked around with a puzzled expression on his face and went to his seat.

The seat was occupied so he took his complaint to the chief usher.

"Someone's in my seat," he growled. "Get him out. And by the way, what time does the wrestling start?"

He had a ticket for the wrestling matches next Monday night, Nov. 16.

Liston's Shoulder Is Okay

By BOB HOOBING

Associated Press Sports Writer BOSTON (AP) — Sonny Liston's left shoulder is A-O-K for his heavyweight title rematch with Cassius Clay on Nov. 16 with the champion already has proclaimed himself the winner and is looking for the rabbit—former champion Floyd Patterson.

Boty Clay and Liston were pronounced in perfect condition by Dr. Nathan Shapiro, Massachusetts Boxing Commission physician, at a preliminary medical check Monday.

Minutes earlier, Clay staged one of his side shows, snarling traffic on Commonwealth Avenue and drawing the attention he sought in a mock hunt for the Big Bear, his name for Liston.

Chief concern of Dr. Shapiro's examination was the left shoulder which was injured and caused Liston to lose his title to Clay after six rounds in Miami last February.

"I can find no restriction of motion," Dr. Shapiro said. "The biceps and entire muscular system has been rebuilt completely since the injury."

Liston, a 9-10-5 favorite in the Las Vegas line, said "I would say I'd win in less than 15 rounds. I'm in better shape than I've ever been in my life. Beyond that I leave the talking up to Clay."

Clay, who did not confront Liston face-to-face but did run alongside his car as the latter arrived and left, again predicted he would win in nine rounds, "maybe before that." He raised nine fingers for cameramen and hailed it as "another great prediction."

"I figure the guys are afraid," said Clay. "It's do or die for him. He's going to be desperate. I figure he'll stalk me. He fight or Clay as champion."

Boxing Commission Chairman Herman Greenberg reminded newsmen that the contract included a clause that the winner of the coming fight must meet one of the first four rated contenders and that $50,000 of the winner's purse will be retained to assure compliance. The contenders presumably will come from the Ring Magazine ratings since the World Boxing Association refuses to recognize the fight or Clay as champion.

Assures Home of the Braves Is Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Eugene Grobbschmidt, Milwaukee County board chairman, says he is in favor of a suggestion that the county, assured that the Braves will make their home in Milwaukee for one more year, consider an antitrust action against the National League.

The antitrust suit was proposed Monday by Rep. Henry Reuss, D-Wis., who said the league's action in Phoenix, Ariz., last week "is a clear attempt at restraint of trade."

In a unanimous decision, the league told the Braves to keep to their contract with the county to play all 1965 home games in County Stadium, but approved the shift of the club to Atlanta for the 1966 season.

Reuss said that "baseball's 42-year-old exemption from the antitrust laws is at an end." He said there was no reason for the county to await possible action by the Department of Justice or the Congress before initiating action.

"Chairman Emanuel Celler of the House Judiciary Committee has likewise expressed the view that Milwaukee County should call the antitrust 'laws into play,'" Reuss said.

Grobbschmidt said Monday night he would confer as soon as possible with county corporation counsel Robert Russell about such a suit.

The earliest form of fantasia music appeared at the beginning of the 16th century, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

he's going to wait for me. I figure he'll get beat even worse than that way. I'm a much better boxer. I'm going to hit him a lot to the boy.

"I know we are going to win. After we win we want the rabbit — Patterson. I think of Liston as the hunter and Patterson as the rabbit."

Herman Greenberg reminded newsmen that the contract included a clause that the winner of the coming fight must meet one of the first four rated contenders and that $50,000 of the winner's purse will be retained to assure compliance. SOUTHWESTERN BELL ARKANSAS

Woodland in Need of Attention

Now is a good time to place your woodland in good growing condition, according to County Agent Calvin Caldwell.

A woodland that has been improperly managed may produce mostly weeds. But a woodland that has been thinned, weeded, and protected from fire, insects, and disease can be expected to produce continuous crops of readily marketable timber at a profit to the owner, Mr. Caldwell said.

Tree planting, timber stand improvement, and other intensive forest management measures adopted by landowners not only assure more quality timber and greater financial returns for the future, but provide immediate jobs for local people as well.

Skilled contract crews, properly equipped, often can carry out this work more efficiently and more cheaply than the landowner himself. Performing such services is a growing field of commercial forest management and a promising source of employment in rural communities.

Proper attention to timber culture now will assure a perpetual supply of timber for wood-using industries in the future.

Through the Agricultural Conservation program, the Federal government will share the tree farmers the cost of carrying out approved tree planting and timber stand improvement practices. Information about the 1965 forestry practices, and the exact specifications and rates of cost sharing, may be obtained from your county agent or from the county committee of and Conservation Service.

Republican Unity Asked by 'Ike'

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says the Republican party must embrace a wide spectrum of political thinking, one that will not be torn apart by divisive and meaningless labels.

At the same time he said the party definitely was hurt by the landslide election of President Johnson.

In his first statement since a torrent of Democratic votes buried the hopes of Sen. Barry Goldwater, Eisenhower blamed his party's defeat, at least partially, on what he termed a false public image.

He made the remark Thursday in a statement he read at a news conference at the Augusta National Golf Club, where he has been vacationing the past few days.

"We need now to consult among ourselves as to methods for correcting the false 'image' of Republicanism, which, far too long, has confused so many of our citizens and led them to think of it as a political doctrine designed primarily for the rich and the privileged," Eisenhower said.

In response to a newsman's question, Eisenhower said he thinks the Republican party has been pictured as being indifferent to the common man and his problems.

He outlined principles which he said were held substantially by every party member. He said the party, above all, is dedicated to the security and progress of all Americans.

"Around these convictions and purposes we can unify our party—one that will refuse to be torn apart by divisive and meaningless labels. So doing, we shall together develop a clear and accurate image of Republicanism for all to see, the Republicanism of which Lincoln was the first and greatest exponent," he said.

Eisenhower said he felt deeply the defeat of Goldwater and William E. Miller, the vice presidential candidate.

"Now with the election before history," he added, "I congratulate President Johnson on his overwhelming victory."

"Beyond this, I, along with every loyal American, pledge him my support as he fights for this country's interests at the international conference table or in any other way that may become necessary."

Eisenhower said the damage suffered by the GOP in the election was not irretrievable.

Asked former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Eisenhower described him as a man of "great ability and great astuteness who would play a great part in unifying the party."

Asked if Goldwater is still an important factor or if the party must offer another candidate four years from now, Eisenhower replied:

"We're still suffering from this past election, let's not get to predicting too much about the next one. I think we have to get everybody together. We have to

Production of Food in Asia Lags

MANILA (AP) — Asia's food production lags behind its population growth and the region faces "a crisis such as has never faced the world before," the director-general of the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization warned today.

Director-General B. R. Sen told the seventh session of the FAO regional conference for Asia and the Far East, "I do not plead for desperate deeds, but I do ask for unremitting effort."

The conference opened Saturday and will last through Nov. 23. It is being attended by 73 delegates from 19 countries.

Legislature in N.Y. Is Democratic

By JOHN MORGANTHALER

NEW YORK (AP) — Democrats ousted Republicans from control of both houses of the legislatures in five states, took over one house in five more states, and scored gains in a dozen others.

The GOP picked up a few legislative seats in several states, notably California.

The big Democratic victories Tuesday were in New York, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa and Utah.

The Democrats took over one house in Colorado, Wisconsin, Montana, Wyoming and North Dakota.

New York — Democrats won the Senate 34-24 and the Assembly 88-62, to get control of both houses for the first time in 30 years. The GOP leaders of both houses were defeated in their districts. With present Republican margins of 33-25 and 85-65, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is expected to call a quick special session to reapportion the districts before the Democrats take over.

Michigan — Latest returns gave the Democrats margins of 72-28 in the House and 23-15 in the Senate, reversing the GOP majorities of 58-52 and 21-11.

The Democratic sweep followed a reapportionment, but Democratic leaders have promised an effort at harmony with GOP Gov. George Romney.

Indiana — Democrats won both houses for the first time since 1935, taking the House 77-23 and the Senate 35-15. The GOP margins had been 56-44 and 25-24 with one vacancy due to death.

Iowa — The Democrats won both houses for the first time in 30 years, taking the Senate 35-24 and the House 124-101. The GOP controls the present legislature, elected before a reapportionment, by 38-12 in the Senate and 79-29 in the House. The reapportionment added seats.

Utah — The Senate will be Democratic 15-12 and the House 30-30, reversing GOP margins of 13-12 and 34-30 in the 1963 legislature. A reapportionment added seats.

Colorado — The Democrats captured the House 42-23, reversing a 41-24 GOP majority, but the Republicans gained one in the Senate to boost their margin to 21-14. Officials of both parties said the GOP would have lost more except for the recent redistricting which it controlled.

Wisconsin — Democrats won the Assembly 52-48 and picked up two Senate seats to trim the GOP majority to 20-13. The Assembly had been 54-46 Republican.

Montana — The Democrats won control of the House for the first time since 1958, and retained control of the Senate for the third straight biennial session. Latest figures show Democratic margins of 31-24, one seat undetermined, in the Senate, and 54-28 in the House, two undetermined.

Wyoming — Democrats took the House 33-28, but the Republicans held a 13-12 margin in the Senate. The GOP had both houses 37-19 and 16-11 before reapportionment. The Democrats won every seat added by the 1963 redistricting.

North Dakota — Democrats won the reapportioned House 64-45 and picked up eight Senate seats to cut the GOP margin in the upper house to 29-20. The GOP had controlled the House 70-43.

California — The Democrats held their 27-13 majority in the Senate but will lose three or four of their 53-38 Assembly majority. The GOP Assembly gain is important because it takes two-thirds to pass a budget and some tax bills in California.

Mouseketeer Is on Her Honeymoon

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Former Walt Disney Mouseketeer Cheryl Holdridge honeymooned today with Lance Reventlow, heir to the Woolworth dime store fortune.

Miss Holdridge, 19, and Reventlow, 28, were wed Sunday in an elaborate double-ring ceremony that had only one hitch—the bride put the groom's ring on his right hand instead of his left.

Prompted by the minister, the Rev. Ronald Potter of Unity church, the nervous bride corrected the error.

Some 600 guests, including actor Cary Grant, crowded the Westwood Community Methodist church.

Missing were the groom's mother, Barbara Hutton, ill in Paris; and the bride's father, Brig. Gen. Herbert C. Holdridge, hospitalized in Washington, D.C.

But Miss Hutton gave the pair a $500,000 wedding gift—a five-bedroom, six-bath home on a 2½-acre site in nearby Benedict Canyon.

The couple will live there after a month-long Hawaiian honeymoon.

Among the 25 members of the wedding party were singer Jimmy Boyd; Tom Skouras of the theatrical family; Ronnie Burns, son of George Burns and the late Gracie Allen; and actress Susan Seaforth.

The marriage was the first for Miss Holdridge. Reventlow, a sports car racer and builder, formerly was wed to actress Jill St. John.

Reventlow, estranged from his father, Danish Count Curt von Haugwitz Reventlow, long has considered Grant his foster father.

Grant, like the count, was formerly married to Miss Hutton.

Two Forfeit Bonds for Assault

GOULD, Ark. (AP) — Pete Aschcraft of Grady and Van Hoy of Star City, charged with assault and battery in the beating of a white civil rights worker on election day, forfeited $25 bonds on the charges Saturday.

They failed to appear in Mayor's Court here.

They were charged in the beating of Frank Cierciorka, 25, of San Jose, Calif., who was beaten outside a polling place here Tuesday, general election day.

Cierciorka, a field secretary for the Student Non-Violent Coordination Committee, was to have appeared in court Saturday on a minor traffic charge, but he had reportedly been called to Mississippi on SNCC work and was granted a continuance.

SNCC said Cierciorka was beaten by two white men who had accused him of running them off the road earlier Tuesday.

Cuba Exiles Cry Out for Return Home

By ROBERT D. CLARK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Volveremos" is the militant slogan of thousands of refugees who pine for Cuba without Fidel Castro.

The Spanish word means simply "We will return." Exiles shout "Volveremos!" at anti-Castro rallies. They paste it on windows of their American cars and apartments.

"We will go back when Castro falls," 270,000 exiles tell each other as they get jobs, start businesses, learn English, wed and buy homes in their land of refuge.

But Castro already has weathered nearly six turbulent years in power.

The Cuban Economists Association in Exile feels that the return of the majority of the refugees will be delayed, at best.

The association recently interviewed exiles in the United States, host to most; Latin America and Spain.

Dr. Jose Alvarez Diaz, association president and former Cuban treasury minister, reported these conclusions:

"About 90 per cent want to return to their homeland."

But from the survey "We reach the conclusion that only 30 per cent of them would go immediately upon Castro's overthrow regardless of the situation inside Cuba. Forty per cent would return when there was evidence of political stability and economic prospects."

Another 20 per cent would go back only when they could obtain in Cuba an income similar to what they are getting now.

"Ten per cent, with residence now in this and other countries, would not return."

Exiled Cuban Supreme Court Justice Francisco Alabau Treilles said he believed that neither marriage, jobs, property ownership nor other stateside developments would deter more than 10 per cent of the refugees from going back to Cuba if they could. And he said the remaining tenth probably would drift back gradually.

Like many of their compatriots, Alvarez Diaz and Alabau Treilles reject the idea that Castro can last. Both agreed, however, that even if Fidel were whisked from the scene tomorrow, returning exiles would have to cope with economic and political chaos in rebuilding their country.

What do rank-and-file refugees see ahead for themselves in relation to Cuba?

Three who were queried have been through the exile mill before. Andres Ramon Fernandez Diaz, 49, a diesel mechanic; Mario Massip, 45, a labor union official; and Manuel Gonzales Ramos, 42, a bus driver, fled into Miami exile from the Fulgencio Batista regime in the 1950s. All hustled happily back to Cuba on Castro's takeover, and all trekked back to Miami disillusioned with Castro.

"When Castro falls I hope to be there," Fernandez Diaz said. "I want to help in the reconstruction of my country."

Massip said, "When Fidel goes down, I hope to be in Cuba and be one of the Cubans who overthrow him."

New Russian Chiefs Win China Praise

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's top leaders today extended their "sincerest and warmest" greetings to the new leaders of the Soviet Union and expressed hope the two estranged Communist giants would "unite closely" to oppose the common enemy — the United States.

"Let imperialism headed by the United States tremble before our strong unity! Long live the eternal, unbreakable friendship between the Chinese and Soviet peoples," said the Chinese message to Moscow, broadcast by Peking Radio.

The message was telegraphed from party chairman Mao Tse-tung, President Liu Shao-chi, Marshal Chu Teh and Premier Chou En-lai to the Soviet leaders on the occasion of the 47th anniversary Saturday of the Bolshevik Revolution.

Chou and a delegation of ideological experts arrived in Moscow Thursday for the celebrations and for talks aimed at quieting, at least publicly, the Soviet-Chinese dispute. The tension has eased perceptibly since the ouster of Nikita Khrushchev, but neither the Chinese nor the Soviets are expected to retreat from their conflicting positions.

The Peking message of good will was tempered by a separate declaration which warned the Soviet Union against invading or occupying any part of Sinkiang Province in northwest China on the Soviet border.

Uranium-rich Sinkiang was the site of the Chinese nuclear explosion on Oct. 16. Last year the Chinese accused the Soviets of abducting thousands of its inhabitants, and stirring up bloody incidents.

In Moscow, Pravda, the Soviet party newspaper, made a veiled reference to Khrushchev's ouster last month and claimed the Soviet Communist party is stronger than ever.

Congressmen Off on Far Journeys

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Faraway places — the glitter of Paris, the sunny shores of Hawaii and Jamaica, the exotic lands of the East — are beckoning and many members of Congress are answering the call. They will soon be off on official trips.

Stay-at-home taxpayers will pick up the tabs for these journeys which critics of Congress call junkets.

But defenders of legislative customs say it is proper for those who have to decide on such things as foreign aid, international agreements, the building of bases abroad and the like, to see firsthand what is being done with the taxpayers' money.

As one committee aide put it

Things Hum Again on Railroads

By ROGER LANE

AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Things are hummin' on the railroad. Heavily laden trains are carrying factory products, coal, lumber, grain, ore and automobiles to mill, plant and market at a rate unmatched since the prosperous mid-1960's.

Wall Street has marked up stock prices to match the recovery of rail earnings from the 15-year low of 1961, and some stocks sell at double their lows of early in the year.

Still, pockets of financial misery persist, especially in the East. The Erie-Lackawanna, Reading, Jersey Central and a few other railroads are mired in the red.

These are mostly lines burdened with short systems and money-losing passenger operations. Freight is a railroad's bread-and-butter.

Over-all railroad earnings are expected by financial analysts and Railway Age, industry weekly, to top $700 million in 1964, hitting an eight-year high.

This estimate allows for added payroll expense from prospective wage settlements with union employees. A charge against the current year of $100 million to $150 million could result.

Gains through mergers, stepped up sales, major equipment innovations, job elimination, automation, better freight car utilization and improved maintenance have contributed to the brightened picture.

Underlying everything else is swelling freight volume generated by 45 consecutive months of an expanding economy.

By the old-time yardstick of carloadings, freight traffic has climbed to a 5½ year high. But carloadings tell only part of the story.

A carload averages 55 tons of freight as against about 50 tons five years ago. This is because jumbo hopper, gondola, flat and box-type freight cars are gradually replacing worn-out smaller units. Also, hauls are longer on the average, and trains move faster.

So using the more accurate barometer of ton-miles — a ton of revenue freight hauled one mile — today's volume has risen 20 percent from the June 1959 level, even though carloadings are about on a par.

When he said his group has no travel plans, "I'm not proud of it. I think we should have."

American Entries Are Favorites

By ORLO ROBERTSON Associated Press Sports Writer

LAUREL, Md. (AP) - The name of the horse race is the Washington, D.C., International.

The site is Laurel's 1 1/2-mile grass course with post time set for 3:45 p.m., EST, Wednesday.

But you will have to search far and wide, be it among horsemen or politicians in Capitol Hill, for those who consider the 13th running of the International anything more than a match race between the two American entries.

Six horses from Russia, France, Ireland, Venezuela, Japan and Italy will be in the starting line-up. But Kelson, world's leading money winner and America's four-time Horse of the Year, and Gun Bow remain the center of discussion as trainers put the finishing touches on their finely tuned charges.

Kelson, winner of $1,803,362 for Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Bohemia Stable, and Gun Bow, a 4-year-old speedster from the Gedyne Farm, have met four times this year and broken even.

Their last two meetings were memorable ones. In the Aqueduct on Labor Day, Kelson won by three-quarters of a length for his first stakes triumph of an otherwise disappointing campaign. A month later Gun Bow, victorious in eight stakes this season, won by the thinnest of noses.

In addition to the prestige, the distribution of $150,000 will be at stake. First place will be worth $90,000, second $25,000 third $15,000, fourth $10,000, and fifth and sixth $5,000 each. The weather man promises perfect racing conditions, except that the course probably will be very hard from lack of rain. The grass has been dyed to retain its original color.

Searching deep in International village, where the foreign horses are quartered, some support was uncovered for the Italian representative, Veronese, and the Russian entry, Anilin, who is unbeaten this year.

From a physical viewpoint, Veronese is a picture horse. The track handicapper made him the 6-1 third choice behind Kelson at 7-5, with Gun Bow at 8-5.

Businessmen at the Spa Are Praised

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Arkansas Council of Churches gave praise to Hot Springs businessmen Monday for what the council called a concentrated effort to revitalize the resort's economy after the defeat of Amendment 55.

The amendment would have legalized casino gambling in Garland County.

The council authorized its executive secretary to remind Gov. Orval E. Faubus that he has promised to enforce state gambling laws and end what the churches call "the century of shame."

The council resolution, passed at its annual meeting here, commended ministers and laymen for working against the proposed amendment.

The Story: Blake Morgan, U.S. postal inspector, is put to work on a special case involving mail box theft, robbery of a post office, the theft of a money order blanks and the slaying of a postal clerk. There are three suspects, all parolees.

I was up early the next morning. I made myself some scrambled eggs and coffee and went to work. My first stop was at the parole offices. I saw Bernard Ellis.

He examined my identification and handed it back to me. "What can I do for you?" he asked.

"I'm checking up on a couple of your boys," I said. "One of them is David Segal."

He's not one of my boys now. David finished his parole six months ago.

"How was his record?"

"My final report was favorable. He filled his pipe and lit it. I don't think David was ever anything more than a victim of circumstances. He was raised in a poor section of Brooklyn, and never had much of a chance as a kid. He ran around with a tough gang of kids, stealing and taking part in rumbles. When he was grown up he had no trade, and couldn't get a decent job. He finally forged a check. He got a tough break then, too, for the judge gave him the stiffest sentence he could. When he got out I helped him to get a job. He kept it for three years and never saw any of his old friends."

"Does he still have the job?"

"No. He came in to discuss it with me after his parole was over. He wanted to leave New York, get away from old memories and old associates, and I thought it a good idea. He went out to Dallas and has a good job there."

"He's still there?"

"Yes. At least, he was six weeks ago. I had a letter from him then."

"Isn't it possible that he returned to New York without your knowing about it?"

"It's possible, of course," he said slowly, "but I don't believe he did. I think that David is supposed to be in Dallas. We can easily check on whether he's still there or not."

"We'll do it quietly," I said.

"What about Michael Shaw?"

"He's one of my boys. He has another year to go on parole."

"How's his record?"

"Pretty good now," he said. "Mike was a tough boy and he had a little trouble when he first went to prison. He didn't get much time off for good behavior, but he did straighten out before he left. But he's settled down now and is doing fine."

"You sound pretty certain that he hasn't slipped."

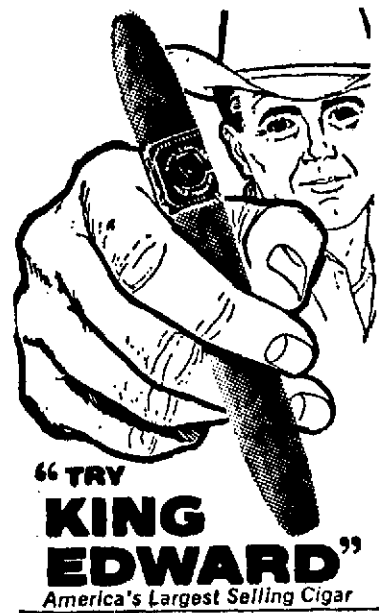

"I am," he said quietly.

"Oh, I've been fooled, but not often. It's always possible that Mike isn't walking the straight and narrow but I doubt it."

"I wasn't doubting it," I said.

"but we've all been fooled a few times. Any objection to my seeing Shaw?"

"Would it make any difference if I did have?" he countered.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Helicopters ranged over rebel terrain in the northwest Congo today seeking 29 kidnapped German missionaries. They included Martin Bormann Jr., son of Hitler's deputy.

White mercenary soldiers who captured the town of Ikela less than 200 miles south of Stanleyville, the rebel capital, said villagers believed the Communist-backed insurgents originally planned to kill the missionaries.

SANA, Yemen (AP) — Both sides in Yemen's civil war were observing a cease-fire today after more than two years of fighting, reports from the Red Sea nation said.

President Abdullah Al-Sallal said the cease-fire went into effect Sunday 12 hours early. Al-Sallal's Republicans, who depend mostly on Egyptian troops, and the royalists agreed to it last week.

The royalist prime minister, Prince Hassan, said in a broadcast his side agreed to the cease-fire "for a limited time to see if the Egyptians are seriously intending to withdraw from Yemen." The royalist foreign minister, Ahmed Shami, said the royalists would never agree to replace the deposed ruler, Imam Mohammed Al-Badr.

GUNTUR, India (AP) — The ruling Congress party has rejected proposals that India build its own atom bomb to offset Red China's new nuclear power.

The party's governing committee supported Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri Sunday after he told it entry into a nuclear arms race with Peking would be a "gross betrayal" of the principles of nonviolence espoused by Mohandas K. Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru.

BERLIN (AP) — Nearly 200,000 West Berliners passed through the wall over the weekend, bringing to a half million the number who have visited relatives in the Soviet sector since the Communists raised the barriers 11 days ago.

About 800,000 of the Western sector's 2.2 million citizens were eligible for one-day passes during the visiting period, which ends Thursday.

Traveling in the other direction, an estimated 15,000 elderly East Berliners have arrived in the Western sector for a month's visit.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Great Britain has been designated arbiter of the border dispute between Argentina and Chile over 270 square miles in the ndres.

Foreign Minister Miguel Angel Zavala Ortiz, just back from conferences with the Chilean foreign minister, said the decision to submit the dispute to arbitration was a decisive step.

VIETIANE, Laos (AP) — The royal Lao army said today a defecting Pathet Lao commander killed a Communist Viet Minh general before coming over to the rightist side.

An army spokesman said the defector, Boun Heng, a battalion commander, tried to capture the general, identified only as Tuong, apparently to bring him along as proof that Communist North Viet Nam's Viet Minh troops are aiding the Communist Pathet Lao. When Tuong's aides put up a fight, Boun shot the general and fled.

Air Alert Called for Malaysia

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — A 24-hour air alert was ordered in Malaysia tonight following reports that Indonesia may have dropped more paratroopers on the Malaysian mainland.

Prime Minister Abdul Rahman ordered intensive police and military investigation of a report that an unidentified plane dropped some 20 objects in the Kuala Lawang area about 30 miles southeast of Kuala Lumpur.

I left, and went uptown. I decided I would see the Emerys myself. The house was in the Eighties between Fifth and Madison. It was a big house with the grand manner of houses built 50 years ago. I rang the bell and waited, expecting the door to be opened by a butler.

It was a maid, dressed in a trim black and white uniform. "I'd like to see Mrs. Emery," I said. "My name is Blake Morgan and I'm with the Post Office Department."

I followed her up the stairs and to a door just to the left on the second floor. She opened the door and stood to one side.

I stepped into the study and looked around.

She was sitting in a chair by the window, an open book on her lap. She was probably 60 years old, her hair a soft white. Her face was drawn, but young looking in spite of it.

"Mrs. Emery?" I asked.

"Yes," she said. Her voice gentle. "I hope you will excuse me for not getting up to greet you. I haven't been too well and my physician tells me that I must stay off my feet. You are Mr. Morgan?"

"Yes."

"Please sit down, Mr. Morgan. You are from the Post Office Department?"

"Yes."

"I do hope there's nothing wrong," she said. There was a slight quaver in her voice as though she might have guessed why I was there—or afraid that she had.

"I don't know," I said truthfully. "I'm sorry, Mrs. Emery, but I would like to talk to your son, Richard."

She sighed and her face suddenly looked older. "I was afraid that it might have to do with Richard," she said in resignation. "What has he done, Mr. Morgan?"

WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN?—It might be said that members of the Ziegfeld Club—composed of those leggy chorines Florenz Ziegfeld used in his famous Follies—are among the best judges of beauty and talent. So the members got together recently and composed the world's most beautiful woman. They selected the face of Mamie Van Doren (top, left) to put atop the torso of Fran Jeffries (top, center). To this, they added the graceful arms of Carol Channing (top, right) and the shapely legs of Carroll Baker (bottom, left). To these beautiful ingredients, the former Ziegfeld girls blended the dancing talents of Marge Champion (bottom, center) and the voice of Barbra Streisand (bottom, right). And there you have it.

Negroes Win 4 Posts in Assemblies

By PHILIP J. MCGUIRE

CHICAGO (AP) — Negroes won seats in four state legislatures for the first time in Tuesday's elections and scored gains in other state and local contests, an Associated Press survey shows.

They also gained at least 10 seats in legislatures of 10 states where Negroes had previously served.

There were also these firsts: Tennessee — First Negro member of the General Assembly since the Reconstruction era after the Civil War.

New Jersey — First Negro assemblyman from outside the Newark area.

Colorado — First Negro district judge.

Alabama — First Negroes elected to four county offices in Macon County.

The highest ranking Negro seeking re-election, Republican Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts, piled up a 2-1 margin over Democratic State Sen. James W. Hennigan, who is white.

Brooke did not endorse Republican Barry Goldwater for president.

Most of the winning Negroes ran as Democrats, some as independents.

Negroes elected to state legislatures that had been all-white included:

—Two members of the Iowa House of Representatives.

—A state senator in Delaware and one in Kansas.

—Three members of the Oklahoma House of Representatives.

Taking seats for the first time in the Iowa Legislature will be Mrs. Willie Stevenson Glanton of Des Moines and James Jackson of Waterloo. Both are Democrats.

Herman N. Holloway, former state representative, became the first Negro elected to Delaware's Senate. He is from Wilmington, and a Democrat.

In Oklahoma, E. Melvin Porter, an official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in Oklahoma City, won a seat in the state Senate, while John B. White, Archibald Hill and Curtis L. Lawton were elected to the House of Representatives. Lawton is from Tulsa, and the other two from Oklahoma City. Both cities received increased representation in the legislature after reapportionment this fall.

A. W. Willis, a Memphis, Tenn., lawyer who had represented James Meredith in his legal battle to enter the University of Mississippi, was elected to the Tennessee Assembly.

In New Jersey, the Rev. S. Howard Woodson Jr., will represent Mercer County (Trenton) in the Assembly. The Rev. Mr. Woodson, a former member of the Trenton City Council won by about 5,000 votes, one-tenth of President Johnson's margin in the county.

James C. Flanagan trailed three other candidates, but captured the last of four vacancies for the post of district court judge in Colorado. He ousted a Republican incumbent in the eight-man race.

In Macon County, Ala., Dr. Charles Gomillion was elected to the county Board of Education. William C. Allen and William Childs won justice of the peace posts, and the Rev. V. A. Edwards, won a seat on the Board of Revenue, governing body of the county. Negroes outnumber whites in the county, but four other Negro candidates were defeated by Democrats.

Negroes also picked up more seats in legislatures in Indiana, Oklahoma, Georgia, California, New York and Massachusetts. They also re-elected incumbents in Washington, Ohio, Arizona and Nebraska.

People in the News

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., says he has heard a rumor that he might be offered appointment as secretary of labor.

The 55-year-old congressman told reporters Sunday night he had heard the report "from a perfect stranger in New York just before leaving" for San Francisco.

Powell said such an offer from President Johnson would require "an agonizing decision." The job is held by W. Willard Wirtz, an appointee of the late President John F. Kennedy.

BOSTON (AP) — Mrs. Edward M. Kennedy, wife of the Democratic senator from Massachusetts, has flown to Ireland to participate in the opening of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library exhibit in Dublin.

Mrs. Kennedy is to meet with President Eamon de Valera Wednesday.

She also will represent the reapportionment this fall.

Four Dead in Pakistan Clashes

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — Four more people have been killed in clashes between rival factions in Pakistan's nationwide elections, police reported today. This brings the death toll to 24 since voting started Oct. 31.

The voters are choosing an electoral college to elect the president, Parliament and provincial legislatures.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Alfred Hitchcock has been selected by the Screen Producers Guild to receive its 13th annual Milestone Award for "historic contributions to the world of motion picture entertainment."

HONOLULU (AP) — Gen. Holland M. (Howlin) Mad Smith, who once commanded the largest Marine Corps force ever assembled, returned Sunday to his World War II command post.

The 85-year-old retired four-star general commanded the Pacific Fleet Marine force in 1944 when it consisted of 260,000 Marines. The force now has 72,000 men.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Novelist Irving Wallace has received the George Washington Carver Memorial Institute Supreme Award of Merit for his "contribution to the betterment of race relations."

Wallace's novel "The Man" is the story of a Negro who becomes president of the United States.

The award was presented to Wallace Sunday during a centennial celebration of the birth of Carver, famed Negro scientist.

7th Grader May Jolt Her Teacher

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — This 7th grader Debbie Greenberg is right about the official Army song.

Debbie and her teacher had a difference of opinion on this question recently.

She contended the Army's tune is the "Caisson Song." He insisted it is "The Ballad of Rodger Young."

Debbie knew it is hard to win an argument with a teacher unless you have some evidence on your side.

So she went to the source writing a letter from her home at Westbury, N.Y., to "United States Army, c/o the Pentagon Building, Washington, D.C."

"I know you are very busy and cannot be bothered with heavy nonsense, but I have an important favor to ask you," she started out.

Then Debbie told about her discussion with her teacher:

"I had to name four service songs. I named the Navy's (no offense), the Air Force's, the Marines', then I named the Caisson Song for the Army."

He so sweetly said no. After this response my heart sank to the bottom of my stomach. I argued in a polite way that I was right. He thinks the Army song is 'Rodger Young.'

Almost plaintively, Debbie said she had consulted every library and reference source — "I have even stopp'd every kind of serviceman on the street."

"I hate to bother you men in Washington," she apologized, "but this means a lot to me. I am not trying to show my teacher up, all I am interested in is the Army song."

"If you are too busy to write back, maybe you could have one of the soldiers in a remote section of the world answer me."

After signing the letter, Debbie added as a P.S.: "You're very sweet. Thanks a million."

Maybe it was the P.S. that did it.

Anyway, the matter came to the attention of a general who wrote back a "Dear Debbie" letter confirming that "our song is 'The Army Goes Rolling Along' and it is based on the old Caisson Song."

"My answer will please you but it probably will not do the same for your teacher," the general said wryly.

Man Who Shot Dog Shot by Dogs Owner

PATCHOGUE, N.Y. (AP) — A 66-year-old hunter has been accused of wounding another hunter after the latter accidentally shot and then killed his beagle.

Arrested Sunday and held on a charge of felonious assault was Salvatore Viscusi of Farmingville.

Ronald Hamlin, 22, of Corona, Queens, was reported in good condition at Brookhaven Hospital. He suffered shotgun pellet wounds of the face and chest.

Police said Hamlin accidentally wounded Viscusi's dog and then put the animal out of his misery. This enraged Viscusi, they said, and he turned his 12-gauge shotgun on Hamlin.
